

AVT Executive MBA

Why Company Sponsorship?

Value for both Company and Employee

- Talent retention – motivation and career building through corporate support
- Strategic & financially capacity – training through own business reports, class discussions and management learning teams
- Knowledge – address organizational business issues from day one
- Competencies – ongoing application of strategic tools to real-life challenges and opportunities in your organization
- Value creation – implementation of essential findings from reports
- New skills – employee will train new skills and function as an internal consultant during studies
- Business mindset – employee will become a stronger asset who can engage at the highest corporate level
- Improved leadership capabilities – employee will develop as a leader beneficial for him/herself, for his/her employees and the entire organization

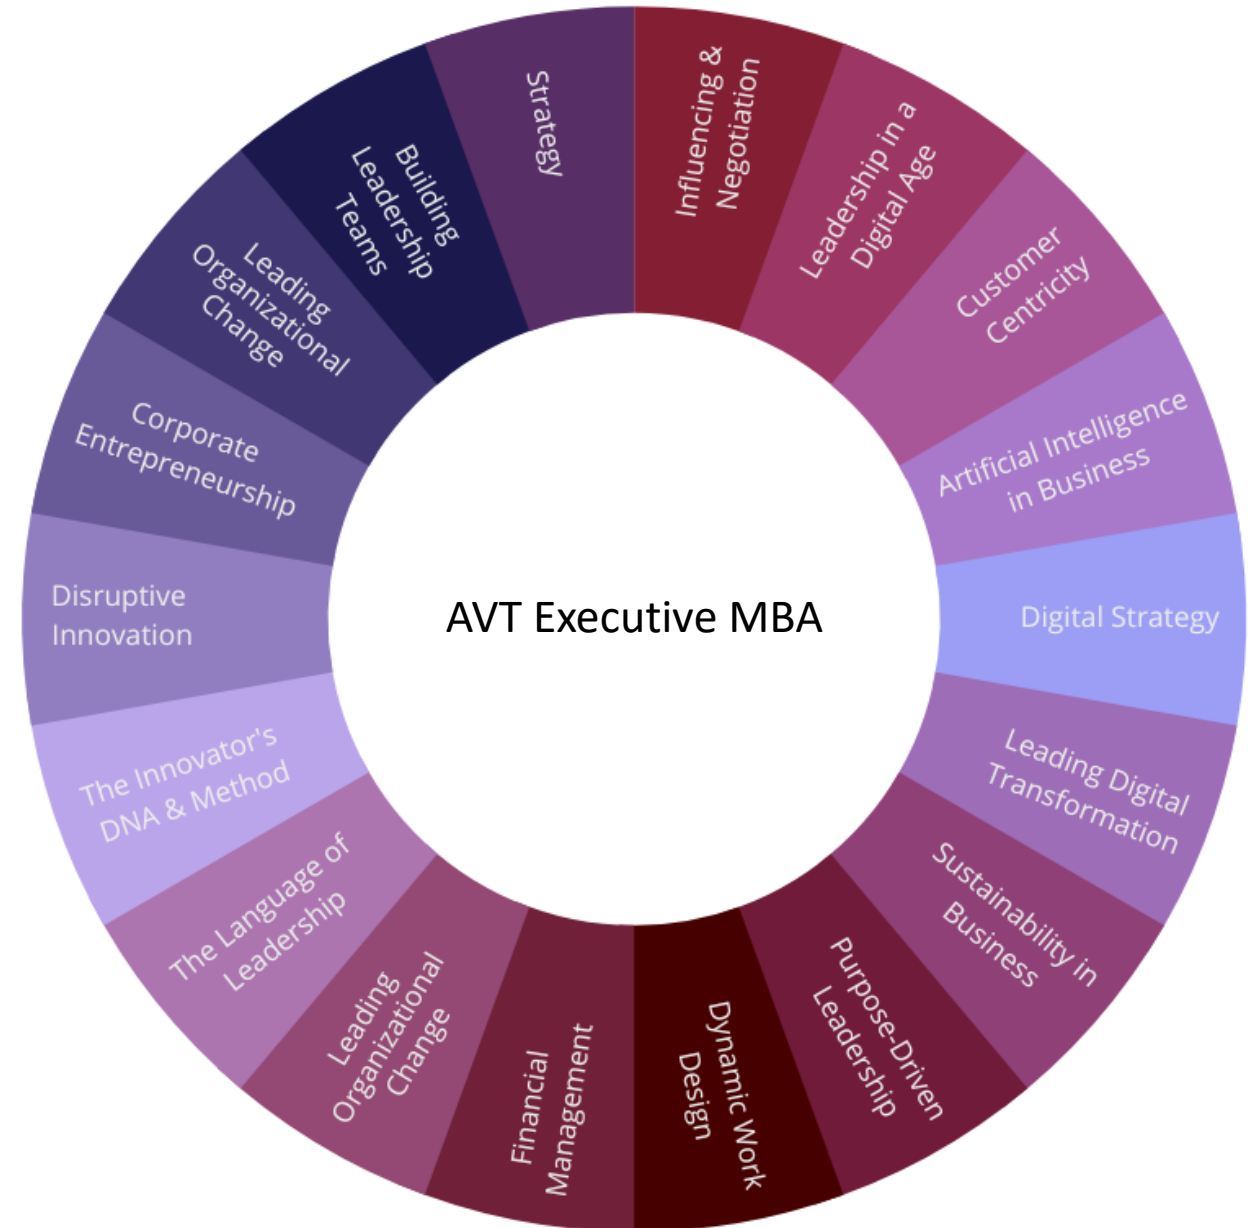

New Perspectives on Your Business

During the MBA program your employee will gain Cutting Edge Insights and knowledge from 18 top-notch courses with focus on leadership and business development.

To complete most courses your employee will write a business report, typically as a strategic analysis of a current challenge or opportunity in your organization and deliver practical management recommendations.

The purpose of all courses is to train your employee to apply theory and frameworks in your business context.

Best Practice from a World-Class Faculty

Professors at AVT are handpicked from the world's best business schools. With their extensive experience in both academia and industry, these professors bring a unique perspective to the classroom and challenge your employee to think creatively and strategically.

Gain insights from institutions like:

- Harvard Business School
- INSEAD
- London Business School
- Stanford Business School
- Kellogg School of Management
- MIT, Sloan School of Management
- Darden School of Business

And many more...

Why AVT Business School?

- 20+ Years of Experience
Founded in 2001 AVT has been educating more than 2500 managers from all kinds of industries with CBA, MBA and tailormade corporate programs
- World-Class Faculty & Practical Learning
Learn from international Best Practice
Focus on practical application and Harvard case-based learning
- AMBA Accreditation
AVT is recognized as an international accredited business school by the authorities of AMBA (Association of MBA's)
- Flexibility to tailor the program
Allowing the student to match the program to work obligations
- Professional Network
The AVT Alumni Network offers a wealth of continuous learning and valuable contact and referrals.

